

Press Conference by the Chief Cabinet Secretary of Japan on the Current Thailand Domestic Situation
(by Chief Cabinet Secretary Yoshihide SUGA)

Tokyo, May 20, 2014

(Provisional Translation)

- Japan is following the situation in Thailand with concern.
- Japan again strongly encourages all parties to exercise restraint and refrain from violence and hope that the situation will be settled peacefully through democratic process and sincere dialogue among Thai people.
- We will keep taking all appropriate measures to ensure safety of Japanese residents and companies in Thailand.